The Scranton Club Are Still Hunting McGinty. The Scranton team was to have played a home game of base ball Satturday with Mike Kelly's Allentown veterans. STATE TEAM FOR SCRANTON.

Was to Be Discussed at Last Night's Philadelphia Meeting.

It is currently reported in base ball circles that Marty Swift is enthused with the idea that Scranton could sup-port a State league team and that the project would be presented for action at a meeting of State league managers at Philadelphia last night.

During Swift's retirement from the management of the Seranton team his advisers have urged him on in the matter and Secretary Diddlebock is said to be willing to support Swift in his purpose. Swift was out of the city yesterday and neither his affirmation ble; no sleep and no appetite or denial to the story could be seenred. However, several of his intimates alleged that the ex-manager is still slated for the soft and sure base ball position at Carbondale, and that he would not be so foolish as to interest himself further in Seranton base ball

JOHNSON IN HOT WATER. Wilkes-Barre Bicyclists Charge Him with Breach of Contract.

The West End wheelmen, of Wilkes-Barre, are hot after John S. Johnson for breach of contract. He agreed to ride at their meet on July 2, and was extensively advertised. On the day of the race the managers got a telegram stating that owing to the railroad strike he would be unable to reach Wilkes-Barre.

The club claims to have positive proof that the strike in no way inter-fered with Johnson's movements, and that a train which he took to compete in some Canadian races on that day would have enabled him to make condollar beauty," alias nections with another train which ar-King Kel, and his rived in Wilkes-Barre on the morning tribe of antiquated of the day on which the races were baseballistic heir- held.

Leon Cubberdi, of New York, won the carnival of sports at Highland beach. "Senator" Morgan says that Governor Flower will be invited to attend the good roads tournament at Asbury Park the latter part of this month.

Two hundred miles of roads in Morris county, N. J., are to be macadamized. The stretch between Dover and Chatham has already been commenced. Class B riders complain that there is a lack of catering to them in Eastern tournaments. A correspondent states that many good riders of the class have re-frained from going on the western circuit in order to patronize meets which were expected to include class Bracers. They are greatly disappointed with the present condition of affairs and would be very glad if clubs would make more room for the class in future fixtures.

The Mercury Wheel caub, of Flushing, L. will hold its Class A tournament on the half-mile track of the local driving park on Sept. 8. The card includes seven events, as follows: One-mile, novice, open; I-mile, 2.40 class; 1-mile handicap, open; 1-mile race for boys under 15 years; 2 mile handicap, open; 3/-mile scratch race open; 1-mile championship of Long Island. MAKE THE BEST OF IT.

Eprinofield Union The thing to do is to make the best pos-sible use of a bad situation. The indus-tries which have been deprived of adequate protection must suffer, and thou-sand of working men and women will find t hard to make both ends meet, but other thousands will find the situation improved through the revival of general business through the revival of general business and the enlarged employment of capital. The Democrats and Mugwumps believe that they have struck a death blow at the policy of protection. We do not believe it. After three years' experience of Democratic tariff legislation, if we must have it, the popular demand for protection of American industries, which has been the policy of the land from the beginning of the republic, will be stronger than eyer.

LETTING GROVER DOWN.

Philadelphia Record, Dem.

Business men know, although those who Business man know, although those who make and unmake tariffs seem to be unaware of it, that the prosperity of this country, while it may be delayed or disturbed, can never be destroyed by the manipulators of tax rates. The resources of the nation are superior to the unwisdom of the presidents and congresses.

Of course a good looking young wom reporter of The World answered the advertisement. That's a way the New York women reporters have. This is her story: John McCarten is not bad looking, despite his 53 years. His clear blue eyes and erect carriage show that he is a man of good habits and unabated energy. The panting landlord of 34 Third avenue showed me up numberless steps to John's room. In answer to my knock he said, "Come in," and I walked in and walked right out again. It was a hall bedroom, containing a bed, a washstand and one chair. "I was jist goin out to cat," said John McCarten, coming into the hall, where I stood, "but I'll wait a little while, though I'm powerful hungry." That, of course, impressed me most favorably. Here was a man who would not long postpone his dinner to gain a wife. "Mr. McCarten," I began, and I could feel that I was blushing, "I saw your advertisement for a wife. Will I do? I am a good, hardworking girl. Will I fill all requirements!" "Well, I dunno," he answered musingly, while he looked me over from head to toe, 'I think you might do. Only, you see, we will have to talk about it first. Ca-ca-can you milk a cow?"

Marriage Fees. Marriage fees are of ancient origin. They are included in the oblations of the marringe service of the Ninth century, which formed the introductory portion of the ceremony. In America I find the clergyman takes a "tip" like a railway porter or a cab driver. It is a pleasant sensation to find a large, handsome gold coin representing twenty dollars, or a crisp twenty dollar bill in one hand, but it is not always dignified. The Church of England provides the "accustomed duty" (by which is meant the fee) should be presented to the clergy man with the ring. The rector of one of the largest churches in this city assures me that his poor people seldom offer a fee. The legal sum of two dollars which a magistrate would charge should be demanded. If a young man cannot raise a couple of dollars for a marriage fee he is hardly in a pecuniary condition to embark on the stormy sea of matrimony.—Rev. Thomas P. Hughes, D. D., in New York World.
